

James M. Tetazoo Memorial Staircase

This staircase was designed by James M. Tetazoo '68, the noted spiritual advisor to Frank O. Gehry. After two decades of distinguished work in the field of architecture, Tetazoo became a Buddhist monk. This staircase provides the opportunity to contemplate the serenity of your surroundings, and take a moment of time to meditate to offset the hectic pace of the Institute.

“Happiness is the journey, not the destination.”
