These things changed the world

For the first time, the museum is displaying a large selection of items from its collection of artefacts from Nobel Prize laureates. These objects tell stories of remarkable discoveries and life achievements. More than 200 artefacts bear witness to revolutionary inventions, courageous peace efforts, groundbreaking ideas and innovative literature.

In the permanent exhibition These things changed the world, you can discover how your life and the world you live in have changed thanks to researchers, writers and activists who have worked in the fields of science, literature and peace.

The museum shop

The shop offers an extensive yet selective range of literature, gifts and souvenirs.

Bistro Nobel

Welcome to Bistro Nobel for something to eat or drink. You can also order the famous Nobel ice cream.
